● PRIZEWINNERS at the St. Joseph's, Fairview Swimming Club's Gala which was held at Iveagh Baths with Rev. Bro. P. F. Brady, Superior of the school, and Rev. Bro. J. B. Carroll, president of the school.

St. Joseph's C.B.S. Gala

ST. JOSEPH'S C.B.S., Fairview, second annual swimming gala at Iveagh Baths, Dublin, proved successful from every aspect to the hundred odd swimmers who took part as well as to the capacity crowd. The first event was for beginners in which sixteen swimmers had qualified for the semi-finals, but in the final it was E. Healy, P. Moore and J. Bracken who touched first, second and third in that order.

Life-saving techniques and their practice and furtherance among their pupils is of primary importance with St. Josephs the event 32 was Life-Saving Championship for the School.

It was brought forward on the programme so that Mr. Charles Haughey, Minister for Justice, would be able to see this team competition for which he had presented a handsome cup to his Alma Mater. This was won by S. Ormsby and D. Page. Second were M. Byrne and A. Dunne and third were P. Cooling and E. Crummy.

And so the gala continued. J. Daly won the Intermediate breaststroke; A. O'Loughlin the Intermediate backstroke; C. Caulfield the Primary freestyle; D. Page the Intermediate breaststroke, S. O'Connell the plunging event and T. Weymes and E. Crummy the life-saving cup presented by Matt Polard, President of the R.L.S.S.

Prize list

Other boys figuring on the prize list were: A. Wiggins, M. Kelly, R. Filgate, P. Dooley, M. O'Byrne for firsts and places, M. McGrath, P. Moore, B. Rice, T. Roche, C. O Cairdhe, A. Norrie, M. Good, V. Flynn, G. McDonagh, T. Briscoe.

In the Parents' 22 yards freestyle race Mr. S. McQuillan touched first in front of Mr. M. McDonagh and Mr. V. Flynn who was third.

L. Hogan won the Past Pupils' freestyle event; Scoil Mhuire, Marino, the Primary 4 x 22 squadron race and St. Joseph's the Junior under 14 squadron as well as the Intermediate under 16 4 x 22
